

Cantillon Chronicle Grading Rubric

Reporter's Name: _____

Date Reporting: _____

Yahoo! You are today's Cantillon Chronicle reporter! Your job is to write an article summarizing everything we learn in class today. Your article will be published on www.misscantillon.com, so others will have the opportunity to view it. Please remember to use exciting vocabulary and appropriate transitions. Your final copy must be typed!

Please read the following very carefully!	Points Possible	Points Earned
You turned in your article on time <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Microsoft Word® document was emailed to Miss Cantillon by 8:30 a.m. or • Microsoft Word® document was turned in on a CD or flash drive by 8:30 a.m. 	5
Your article is typed <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Your document is titled "Cantillon Chronicle - Name" • You have a proper fifth grade heading 	10
Your article is organized <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Your article contains an interesting introduction and a satisfying conclusion • Your article is well-organized and includes all of the important events of the day as well as the learning of the day 	10
Your article is descriptive <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You clearly described each of the important events and learning of the day • You used adjectives and adverbs to make your writing more descriptive • Your article contains at least one quotation 	10
Your article is well written <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It is obvious that you and an adult proofread your article • Your article contains proper spelling, grammar, punctuation and capitalization 	15
Total Points	50	